The Channel Heritage Museum is a volunteer organisation so fees are charged for time spent doing research by volunteers to meet our operating costs.

We cannot guarantee that we have the information you are seeking but every effort will be made to meet your request.

An initial fee of $10.00 is charged to investigate whether relevant information is available. This initial fee should come with the request form. Indication will be given if further research will produce more information. Further research fee is $20.00 per hour plus postage. Photocopies 30c per A4 sheet.

Museum use only.
